

To celebrate the World Engineering Day in 2021, China Institute of Water Resources and Hydropower Research (IWHR) is organizing a video campaign, The Proud Engineers, to interview its young employees on what they are the proudest of as an engineer in water and hydropower sectors.

The edited video, which will be bilingually subtitled in both Chinese and English, will be released on the World Engineering Day on the WeChat Official Account of IWHR.
